

RIOTS THOUGHT TO BE CERTAIN

Mobs Begin Forming Throughout Constantinople--Soldiers Have Fixed Bayonets On Guns.

PEOPLE IN PANIC THIS AFTERNOON

New Cabinet Is In Process Of Formation--Sultan Has Given In To Demands Of The People--Soldiers Wait Results.

(By Associated Press.) Constantinople, April 14.--The situation is becoming worse and the panic among the people is increasing. Bands of soldiers, accompanied by religious students and the dregs of the population, are parading the two principal quarters of the city with fixed bayonets. Rapid fire guns have been mounted on the Stamboul bridge. Constantinople, April 14.--The city is much quieter this morning and business has partially resumed its usual lines although some shops are still closed and will be reopened today. Still Waiting. The exciting occurrences of yesterday have had their marked effect upon the people in general and the presence of the military forces in places of vantage has prevented any rioting or looting which usually comes at such a time. Wait Results. The majority of the garrison this morning still occupied their positions in front of the Chamber of Deputies and the war offices and it is stated they will remain there until the new cabinet is formed which was promised yesterday. For the Liberals. The revolution has been brought about by the Liberals who seek to oust all of the officials of the young Turk party. Many of the Liberals who fled at the time of the young Turk coup have returned and are directing affairs. Result of Rioting. The casualties resulting from the rioting include Nodin Pasham, minister of justice in the late cabinet, killed; Aliza Pasham, minister of marine, wounded; and Sadik Pasham, killed. It is thought several others were badly wounded but they have not been reported. Grants All Asked. The Sultan has granted all the demands made upon him by the revolting troops and it is said that there will be no further outbreak and the new cabinet will be formed without any trouble.

TWO BILLS OF INTEREST TO ROCK COUNTY PEOPLE

Simon Smith's Bill Referring To Beloit Municipal Court, Passed Assembly.

(Special to the Gazette.) Madison, Wis., April 14.--The bill introduced by Simon Smith of Beloit to compel the municipal judge of Beloit to notify the county treasurer when he will be absent so that a justice of the peace who takes his place can be held, was passed by the assembly today. In the senate a bill was introduced which will require the jury commissioners of Rock county to furnish the municipal court for petty jury service a list of two hundred names. The committee named to report as to means of expediting business have named May 8 as the date for final adjournment. The senate committee also made a report on the bill which prohibits boys under eighteen from smoking. This measure passed the assembly yesterday.

THREE MEASURES ON THE THURSDAY LIST

One If Passed Will Mean the Abolishment of the Game Warden System.

(Special to the Gazette.) Madison, Wis., April 14.--Unless all signs fail Assemblyman H. E. Roethlisberger will be the star actor on the assembly program next Thursday. At the session of the assembly yesterday three of Roethlisberger's bills were down for indefinite postponement but he succeeded in having action deferred upon them until Thursday, when each will be defended by him in lengthy arguments. All three are repeal measures, the first to abolish the state board of investigation, the second the civil service commission and the last the state game warden's department. The hardest contest will be over the bill to abolish the state game warden's department, and Assemblyman Roethlisberger is considering the advisability of drafting a substitute measure reducing the number of game wardens on the force. He spent much of his time yesterday reading the testimony before the joint investigating committee regarding the activity of game wardens in politics, and his comments upon the department promise to attract considerable attention. It is said that he will be assisted by Assemblyman Ingram in placing before the assembly a measure which will at least reorganize the game warden department. Just what Assemblyman Roethlisberger's opinion on regarding the civil service law can not be ascertained, but the fact that he had the measure to abolish the office laid over until Thursday, when little else will be up for consideration, indicates that he will not let the bill go to death by default. His third measure to abolish the law migration bureau will meet with strong opposition from the members of northern Wisconsin, as this bureau advocates the resettlement of northern Wisconsin settlers may be attracted to that locality. There is another bill pending before the legislature to increase the appropriation for this department of $50,000 annually. Roethlisberger's voice will be heard in opposition to this measure and in favor of the bill that will wipe the board out of existence. Thursday will also mark the climax of the contest in the assembly over the spring shooting bill. The refusal of the lower house to pass the measure

BULGARIAN ARMY IS TO BE BROUGHT OUT

Delay in Settling Up the Turkey-Bulgarian Matter May Lead to Bloodshed.

(By Associated Press.) St. Petersburg, April 14.--Negotiations looking to the settlement of the Turkey-Bulgarian army dispute is taking such an unsatisfactory course that the mobilization of the Bulgarian army is regarded as possible unless Turkey speedily comes to terms. The hardest contest will be over the bill to abolish the state game warden's department, and Assemblyman Roethlisberger is considering the advisability of drafting a substitute measure reducing the number of game wardens on the force. He spent much of his time yesterday reading the testimony before the joint investigating committee regarding the activity of game wardens in politics, and his comments upon the department promise to attract considerable attention. ILLINOIS CAPITAL FORMALLY INVADED Subregulate Reach Springfield for Grand Parade Before Legislators.

(By Associated Press.) Springfield, April 14.--The halls of the legislature were invaded today by the women suffrage bills now pending before the assembly. The 70th joint ballot for senator resulted as follows: Hopkins 55, Pass 18, Shurtliff 19, Stringer 14, Philip Freiler of Elgin, 23, senatorial term. The balloting will be resumed tomorrow.

Squeezed! Congressman--The Congressional Records are a little bulky for this extra session, but I have had a great deal to say.

'SPITE HOUSE' SOLD IN NEW YORK CITY

It Was Built By An Eccentric Millionaire to Shut Off Light From Neighboring Premises.

(Special to the Gazette.) New York, April 14.--The famous "Spite House," one of the most interesting pieces of New York real estate, was put up for sale at public auction today. The house, which is located at the corner of Lexington avenue and Eighty-second street, was built by Joseph Richardson, an eccentric citizen who died about fifteen years ago, leaving an estate valued at about $20,000,000 to his widow and a like amount to a son and daughter. The house was four stories high and occupied a plot of ground ten feet by 5. It has a frontage equal to four city lots, but it runs back only five feet. Richardson became possessed of the unique strip of land when he married his second wife in the early eighties. Soon after, the owner of the adjoining property, Henry Sarnier, wishing to build a row of dwellings, offered Richardson $1,000 for the five-foot strip. The eccentric old millionaire demanded $5,000. This being refused, he proceeded to build the "spite house," which effectively shut off Sarnier's avenue frontage. Richardson and his family occupied the house until his death. Then the house was sold and remodeled so it contained six stories, and five feet deep. Since the house was built, property in value and the narrow strip has been worth many times the $5,000 that was demanded by Richardson and which at the time was considered an excessive price.

MISS FLORA WILSON SINGS AT THE PLAZA

Daughter of the Secretary of Agriculture Makes Her American Debut in New York.

(Special to the Gazette.) New York, April 14.--A fashionable audience attended the concert at the Plaza hotel this afternoon to mark the American debut of Miss Flora Wilson, daughter of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson. Among the patronesses of the event were Mrs. William H. Taft, Mrs. James S. Sherman, Mrs. Garret A. Hobart, Mrs. Philander C. Knox and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie. Miss Wilson, who has studied abroad for several years, will probably be heard in grand opera next winter.

INDIANA TROUBLED BY NIGHT RIDERS

Warn Farmers Not to Pay More Than One-Third Their Crop in Rent This Year.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Ind., April 14.--Indiana night riders were terrorizing the land owners and tenants in the vicinity of Harrison's Ferry, south of this city. The tenants have been informed if they paid a greater rent than a third of their crop, their crops would be moved down before rising.

TAFT HAS RENTED HIS SUMMER HOME

Makes Formal Announcement What He Will Do During the Coming Summer.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, April 14.--The official announcement was made at the White House today that the President had leased as a summer home the cottage of Robert B. Evans at Woodside Point, Beverly, Mass. The president, Mrs. Taft, and other members of his family left for New York today. They will be the guests of Henry W. Taft. Tomorrow the president goes to New Haven to attend a meeting of the Yale corporation.

WAUSAU CHURCH TO INSTALL NEW PASTOR

Presbyterian Church Will Have Special Exercises for Incoming of New Minister.

(Special to the Gazette.) Wausau, Wis., April 14.--The Presbyterian church today accepted the examination of the Rev. James Dyer and he will be formally installed as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city this evening. The Rev. A. M. Ayers of Oshkosh will deliver the sermon. Rev. L. P. Peck of Fond du Lac will deliver the charge to the pastor and the Rev. C. G. Dale of Marinette the charge to the people. Three candidates for ordination will be passed upon at this session.

SON AIDS FATHER TO ESCAPE PRISON

Charles Didwell Withdraws His Appeal So That His Father Can Be Released From Jail.

(By Associated Press.) Chicago, April 14.--Charles Didwell's effort to save his aged father, Benson Didwell, from prison at the cost of his own possible liberty was accomplished today. Charles offered to spare the state in which he had much faith. If the state would be lenient with his father, this was accepted with the older Didwell today pleaded guilty to a minor charge and was sentenced to ten days in jail. Charles goes to the penitentiary Friday. The Didwells were sentenced to indeterminate terms in the penitentiary for alleged swindling through the medium of a "cold" money invented by Benson Didwell.

ASTRONOMICAL MUSEUM DEDICATED IN GERMANY

(Special to the Gazette.) Berlin, April 14.--The new Royal Astronomical Museum at Treptow, toward the building of which Andrew Carnegie was a generous contributor, was formally dedicated and opened today with interesting ceremonies and in the presence of a large assembly.

FIND BODY OF MISSING JANITOR BADLY MUTILATED

(Special to the Gazette.) Milwaukee, Wis., April 14.--The body of Emil Walchschlager, mangled and bruised, was found in the Milwaukee river this morning and the indications are that the man was murdered. The body has been in the water two weeks. The right arm was broken and the bones of the left leg were also broken. The sliver of Walchschlager's coat was torn. The authorities believe the body was thrown into the river.

HIGHEST PRICE IN THIRTY YEARS REACHED TODAY

(By Associated Press.) St. Louis, Mo., April 14.--The highest price paid for each wheat in St. Louis in thirty-one years was recorded today when sales Number Two Red were made at $1.47 and $1.50. Large as a consequence of these market conditions the flour industry has almost ceased locally.

YOUNG GIRL CONFESSES SHE IS MOTHER OF THE CHILD

Mystery Surrounds Discovery of Babe's Body in the River--Name of Father Not Known.

(Special to the Gazette.) Manitowish, Wis., April 14.--Confessing that she is the mother of the child and that its presence in the river was due to the acts of her own mother, Minnie Radlitzky, 16 years old, as a witness in the latest this morning cleared up the mystery of the finding of the body of a dead child in the river at Cato a week ago. The girl refuses to give the name of the man implicated in the case although put through a severe cross examination, but it is said this will develop this afternoon and promises to be a big sensation.

CITY WILL PETITION R. R. FOR OLD RATES

Business Men of Manitowish Complain That Wisconsin Central Does Not Treat Fairly.

(Special to the Gazette.) Manitowish, Wis., April 14.--Upon suggestion of business men the city council will authorize a petition to be presented to the Wisconsin Central Railway Co. and its allied interests asking that the old rates for coal shipments from this city be restored. The city will cite that two years ago, upon request of the Wisconsin Central officials, Gen. Mgr. Potter appearing here in person, the city spent $50,000 in dredging a channel in the river to the new Central coal docks and that a $5,000 bridge structure which interfered with a turning basin which was desired by the Central, was abandoned. In view of these facts the petition will declare that an injustice is being done the city especially when it means a serious loss in dollars and cents. Christian Storwig, a former Two Rivers resident was sent to this city from Sheboygan when he became ill in that city and died suddenly at the hospital yesterday just after the county board's poor committee had visited him in an effort to learn something of his family. Storwig resided at Two Rivers seven years ago and only recently located at Sheboygan. He was a veteran of the German army and was unmarried. That the death rate in this city during the winter was 15 per cent and that a majority of the dead were persons of advanced years is shown by the report of the health department for the quarter ended March 31. There were 46 deaths, 71 birth, 23 accidents and 28 marriages. A total of 113 cases of contagious diseases were reported during the quarter, measles being epidemic with 50 cases. Within twenty-four hours two of the county's oldest pioneers responded to death yesterday. John Hanson, the oldest resident of Rapids, expiring suddenly from heart failure and Mrs. C. Holcken of this city dying after a long illness. Both were 83 and had resided here upwards of fifty-five years.

HALF-WITTED BOY A VERY CLEVER THIEF

La Crosse Youth Sent to Industrial School for Stealing Into Store.

(Special to the Gazette.) La Crosse, Wis., April 14.--Pleading guilty to the charge of burglarizing the grocery store of A. H. Englehard, Henry Franz, aged 15 years, was committed to the industrial school at Wausau yesterday. The boy is half-witted but displayed considerable ingenuity in getting into the store, where he rifled the till and stole a large quantity of the stock. Escaped Prison Sentence. Placing his age and youth less than it really is, Donald F. Bennett, a youth of 17, pleaded a clever game on the county judge yesterday and escaped being sent to the penitentiary. When Bennett was arraigned on a charge of grand larceny, he promptly replied: "I'm only 15 years old, judge, and you can't send me to Wausau." The boy pleaded guilty, and instead of sending him to the reform school, the court decided to sentence him to the county jail for thirty days. Later it developed that the boy was 17 instead of 15 years old, but as sentence had been imposed, the court was unable, legally, to change it and sentence the prisoner to the penitentiary.

RICH GIFTS FOR BALTIMORE BRIDE

$100,000 Check and $13,000 Automobile Among Presents For Mrs. Harriet Brown Talbot.

(Special to the Gazette.) Baltimore, Md., April 14.--The wedding today of Miss Harriet Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, and T. Stewart Talbot of New York was attended by the wealth and fashion of Baltimore and several other cities. The wedding was a late afternoon affair at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Donald Guthrie, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Howell Griswold, Jr. The wedding gifts were the most magnificent ever presented to a Baltimore bride. Included among them were a $100,000 check from her father, a touring car with all the latest improvements, sold to have cost $13,000, from Oscar G. Murray, president of the gold and silver plates from New York, nine superb rugs of unusual skill, one a royal Bengal tiger and another a genuine polar bear; jewelry, service and cases of silver, and race bric-a-brac.

'BLACK SMOKE' IS TO FIGHT 'WHITE CLOUD'

'Champ' Jack Johnson And Stanley Ketchel Sign Articles for Battle in New York.

(By Associated Press.) New York, April 14.--Jack Johnson and Stanley Ketchel were matched today to box twenty rounds for the heavyweight championship at the Colma Athletic club, October 12th, next. The Chicago club, winners for the last three years, has retained its old lineup practically unchanged and looks to be the best bet for the penultimate season. There is a lot of splendid talent opposed to the Cubs, but it looks now as though New York has the best array of the other teams, and it would not be surprising if the Cubs and the Giants would again fight it out for championship honors as they did in the exciting race of last year. American Association. Indianapolis, Ind., April 14.--The American Association starts its season today with Columbus playing at Louisville, St. Paul at Milwaukee, Minneapolis at Kansas City, and Toledo at Indianapolis. Bricksy games peek out for a successful season. The weaker teams of last year apparently have been strong among the players, while the clubs that finished in the first division appear to be in shape for another hard race for the pennant. The season this year will be the longest in the history of the association. One hundred and sixty-eight games will be played, twelve more than in either of the major leagues. The close will come September 27.

STRIKES OBSTRUCTION AND SINKS--PASSENGERS SAVED

Accident on the Ohio River to Passenger Steamer 'Virginia' Last Night.

(By Associated Press.) Wollsville, Ohio, April 14.--The steamer "Virginia" struck an obstruction in the channel during a heavy wind late last night and sank. Fifty passengers were rescued by the crew before most of their clothing and valuables. Young Girl Confesses She Is Mother of the Child. NAT'L LEAGUE SEASON OPENS

AND CONTENTMENT LIGHTS THE FACE OF THE FAN.

SOME BASEBALL HISTORY

Chicago Has Nine Times Nabbed the Little Rag of Victory in a Period of 32 Years.

(Special to the Gazette.) New York, April 14.--If the weather man is kind, the season of the National league is to be inaugurated today, with the Brooklyn playing in New York, the Philadelphia in Boston, the Pittsburgh in Cincinnati, and the St. Louis Cardinals in Chicago. The season will continue until Oct. 7, the schedule providing for 156 games. The race of 1909 will be the thirty-third annual tussle of the National league. Since its inception in 1876 there have been 32 cities to hold membership in the organization. Chicago and Boston were charter members of the National league and are the only two cities that have held membership continuously since 1876. They have been in every National league race and between them have won more pennants than all the other cities put together. The Chicagoans in 32 years have won nine pennants. Only once have they finished last. That once was in 1877, when there were only five clubs in the league. The Bostonians have won eight pennants in the 32 years. They also have finished last but once--in 1906. The list of cities that have been National league members is as follows: Chicago, Hartford, St. Louis, Boston, Louisville, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Providence, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Buffalo, Syracuse, Cleveland, Troy, Worcester, Detroit, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Washington, Brooklyn, Baltimore and New York. New York was in the league in 1876, the team of the metropolis being known as the Mutuals. The first seven cities named and the Mutuals comprised the National league circuit in its maiden year. The circuit has ranged in size from five cities to twelve. The circuit consisted of eight cities in 1876, of five in 1877 and of eight from 1878 on until 1892. From 1892 to 1899, inclusive, 12 cities formed the circuit, and from 1899 to the present time eight cities. The biggest percentage ever made by a pennant winning team was that of Chicago in 1898. During the season America's invincibles won 67 games and lost 17, and their percentage was 798. The best 12-club circuit percentage was made by the Bostonians in 1897--706, representing 93 victories and 49 defeats. The poorest percentage was made by the Clevelanders in 1899, when there were 20 victories and 124 defeats and a percentage of 124. The difference in points between the winner and the tail-end team that year was 532, which is the extreme in this regard. The following year, when the Brooklyn finished first and the New Yorks last, the difference in points was only 108, the least on record. The following table indicates the position in which the eight clubs now comprising the league have finished from year to year:

Chicago	1, 5, 4, 3, 1, 1, 2, 4, 1, 1, 3, 2, 2, 2, 7, 9, 8, 5, 9, 4, 8, 6, 6, 5, 3, 2, 3, 1, 1, 1.

Siberia's Awful Cold.
Siberia has the coldest weather known anywhere in the world. At Verkhoyansk, Siberia, 90.4 degrees below zero was observed in January, 1888, which goes below anything ever known in the world before or ever since. At that point the average temperature for January is nearly 64 degrees below zero. This town is 320 feet above the level of the sea, and during the entire winter the weather is calm and clear.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THE working woman who is persecuted by the evidently dishonorable intentions of her employer is undoubtedly in a difficult position. She is in constant terror lest her reputation of them will mean the loss of her position.

And yet, somehow, I have even more sympathy for the girl whose employer, while entirely respectful in his attitude towards her, assiduously devotes himself to making life pleasant for her.

The head of a large business concern, a notorious man about town, told a pretty girl, who had recently come to his office, and who lived with her chum "on bachelor," that he wanted her to have a little chiding dish party for him.

"When shall it be?" he asked.

Taking his request simply as a banter, she escaped him, but the next day he pushed the question. "When am I going to that chiding dish party?"

"Oh, Mr. Stevenson," she protested, "of course, you can't come out. I heard something about you last night."

"You mustn't believe all you hear," he warned. "What was it?"

Her brown eyes widened in an innocence he hardly knew whether to question or not.

"Why, you're married," she said. And that was the end of her troubles. But the way out for the girl in the net of kindness is no such simple thing as that.

Friendliness is sometimes harder to battle with than insult. The employer is always ready with some half serious, half laughing banter. He is always planning something for her comfort—her desk must be moved from the draughty corner, no matter who else is discommoded. He brings her their favorite magazine, that she may read the story that he is interested in. And yet there is in all this no single word or act at which she feels that she has the right to cavil.

It may even be that she has no desire to cavil, and honestly believes that there is no harm in such a relationship—calls it platonic friendship. It may also be that the harm he is doing is unconscious on his part.

But all the time is closing about them the almost inevitable result of day-in and day-out preinquity between two congenial people, a net of mutual need by which they are helplessly held together.

Since the world's judgments are what they are, there is no great danger for the man. But there is for the girl. And isn't the position she is in for more of a problem than that of the woman who knows that her employer's intentions are frankly dishonorable?

Polyglot Walter Was American.

At a restaurant in the Wall street district in New York where the waiters all speak French and many of them German there is a popular waiter who is known to various regular customers as Franz, Frank and Francois. He speaks German and French with equal fluency, and on that account was the subject of a bet which he had to decide yesterday. One man who had known the waiter for years said that Franz was a German, and another was just as certain that he was French, and a third said that both men were wrong; and that the linguist waiter undoubtedly came from Alsacia, or from that part of Switzerland where every child speaks three languages, each with a foreign accent. They were all surprised to hear that Frank, as he prefers to be called, was born in the Eighth ward, and has never been further from New York than Washington.

Good Manners.

The instinct of self-control, of gentleness, of consideration and forethought and quick sympathy, which go to make up what we call good breeding; the absence of noise and hurry, and thousand and one little ways by which we can please people, or avoid displeasing them—are all taught us by our own hearts. Good manners are the fine flowers of cultivation, and everybody can have them.

A CELEBRATION

Many who want a Fourth of July celebration held in Janesville in connection with the proposed Home-Coming of former residents now living in Chicago, have made inquiry within the past few days if anything has been done definitely regarding the matter. It is best to talk plainly on the subject now as well as any other time. Celebrations have been held in the past which have proven most successful. Business men have devoted much time from their own personal affairs to insure the success of the day. They have gone out and solicited the funds, have taken time to prepare the program and have made other arrangements for the entertainment of the city's guests all without one cent of recompense. It has been a hard task for a few men while the citizens as a whole enjoyed the day and celebrated in a fitting manner. It has done much to advertise Janesville. Newspaper and even some magazines have mentioned the Janesville celebration and the unique features of the Home-Coming parade. It is not fair to ask these men to go to work again and get up a celebration, do all the work and then have the portion of the business interests of those who reap the majority of the benefits give but a meagre share of the cost in way of subscriptions. If a celebration is to be held this summer it is safe to say that the men most interested must do most of the work of collecting and raising the funds needed. It would be a good thing for the city, but it means a tremendous amount of work on the part of a few and the only way that matters can be brought to a head is to have a mass-meeting called and committees appointed to raise funds, so that it may see how much money will be on hand to expend long before the last minute comes and the rush of preparation is near. The Fourth comes on Sunday this year, but will be celebrated on Monday, which means two days for visitors in the city. If it is to be seriously considered it is time to begin now.

IS WIDESPREAD

There is much interest felt in the outcome of the present attempt to compel liquor places to obey the law. Mayor Elmer Carl has signified his intention most emphatically of seeing that the laws are obeyed and many prominent citizens are anxious to aid in the work. Men who are prone to enjoy an occasional drink themselves are ready to see that the laws relative to the hours and days of closing are enforced. They believe that this is an important matter and if Mayor Carl takes this step he will receive substantial backing with a view of securing a reversion of the licenses of all license-holders who fail to live up to the law. It is not a crusade of the anti-alcohol league, but a strong sentiment on the part of businessmen to aid in the betterment of the city as a whole and aid the police in compelling law-abiders to keep the ordinances they subscribed to when they accepted their licenses. In this particular connection the attempt to revoke the licenses of Ray McDowell and Mrs. Waltrath and the delays they have occasioned has done much to bring this to an issue.

STILL INVESTIGATING

The three Senators who comprise the committee are seeking for some part of evidence they will not find but will continue to spend the state's money in an endeavor to furnish political capital for the coming campaign for election of a United States Senator, Governor and state ticket. Throughout the recent investigation just closed these three Senators have shown by every move their investigation was one of spite not dictated in any degree by fairness. Now these three will continue their investigation and seek to prove something out of nothing and will find it difficult to do unless they smother their own garments.

Spring hunting is now the question to sportsmen. One mistake is made in the measure up for consideration and that is the date of the spring season. The season should open earlier in the southern part of the state than in the northern and the climate conditions should govern the dates. It is doubtful if there is any hunting this year, however.

The state legislature has before it consideration of a measure known as the Onstad bill which would regulate the sale and manufacture of paints in the state. It is a measure that should be killed and never passed as it would work much injury to the businessmen of the state.

Taft can smile when the Paris papers begin their crusade on Roosevelt, for he knows from experience that the Ex-President is well able to take care of himself in any argument that may be started.

Manager Sullivan of the Chicago Sox got part of his baseball training up at Edgerton on the same team with some of the present Janesville residents. Here's to Sullivan, a Wisconsin product.

The baseball season opens today and the Chicago fans are already counting on two pennants this year when the fight of the battle is over.

As one of the harbingers of spring the strawberry shortcake takes premier honors with the robin and spring flowers.

Thus far this spring the Kaw river has been behaving like a little gentleman and even the old Rock is placid and quiet.

Speaker Cannon is hardly getting any exercise now that the Payne bill slipped down the greased plank so easily.

Senator Aldrich speaks of his amended tariff bill in such glowing terms that it is possible it may be passed.

Glover Littauer of Gloverville apparently has lost the combination of the Senate committee room safe.

THE BOOK AND THE BIG STICK.

One of the most interesting of the stories of the late administration is the story of the book and the big stick or—

A tale of muck raking and big sticking.

Upton Sinclair, a novelist of the socialist type, wrote a book called "The Jungle."

The book told some horrid things about the practices of the Chicago packing houses. Its nauseating revelations made many of its readers—temporarily, at least—practicers of the vegetarian regime.

The Chicago packers had an easy answer to Sinclair's book—"It is not true!"

Then President Roosevelt got hold of the book and read it. You can fancy to yourself what he thought about it. He said out loud, "Either it is a pack of lies from beginning to end or it is true." The president thought there was no truth in the charges, but was very willing to investigate.

He sent experts to Chicago.

When these inspectors looked into the shambles of South Chicago they discovered that Upton Sinclair had told the truth about the filthy methods of the packers and the grave menace to the public health.

Out came the big stick.

Roosevelt notified the friends of the packers in the senate that unless congress should pass a good meat inspection bill instantly he would tell the whole gruesome story of the revolting conditions in the big-butcher shops of Packingtown.

Here was cause for grief.

The packers did not want the truth made public. It would give both domestic and foreign trade a big black eye. The cattlemen didn't want the story made public. And the president menaced both these interests that he did not want to harm them, but—

The president said to them, "Get busy."

The effect was magical. They got busy.

The senate ON THE SAME DAY THE PRESIDENT GAVE OUT HIS ULTIMATUM attached the most inspection bill as an amendment to the agricultural appropriation, and it went through without a dissenting vote.

And the lower house, was scarcely less prompt.

Upton Sinclair, a writer with convictions and a purpose, combined with Theodore Roosevelt, a president with a will of his own, demonstrated that beneath the rule of men entirely great the muck rake and the big stick are mightier than the sword.

Edwin—No, over.—Chicago Daily News.

HAD TIME LEFT.

"Great Caesar, I've read this paper through three times and my eggs are not ready yet."
"Yes, sir; but our patrons usually read the paper through seven times before they are served."

To Prevent Smoke.
Here is a hint on preventing the smoke that usually accompanies adding fresh fuel to an open fire or grate. When adding the new wood, put it at the back, drawing the pieces already burning to the front to keep in the heat and prevent smoke.

Judging Character.
Character is told by the voice. It is a telltale of temperament. A heart full of feeling and generous warmth is betrayed in the tones. The blind always read individuals by the voice.
Advantage Sometimes Overlooked.
"Another big advantage about steady, hard work," said Uncle Eben, "is that it keeps a man from having time for conversation with bunco steers and gold-brickers."

SPECIAL OFFER FOR THIRTY DAYS
WILL SELL ONE THOUSAND PROPERTY OWNERS IN COUNTRY OR CITY IN ROCK COUNTY, WISCONSIN.

Since this offer was first made 621 property owners have purchased.

The above cut shows a three year old grape vineyard. I wish to state emphatically that when you buy nursery stock of me you do not have to pay for the goods until the second year. There are no obligations, in the way of money, or note, just the buyer's word given in regard to the agreement below. This gives you all this summer's growth and you can see how they come through the winter, and after they start to grow the following spring you can pay for the goods if they are entirely as represented. I can show you thousands of dollars worth of stock that is growing that was planted last spring and summer, and anyone who is at all skeptical as to the quality of stock I furnish will be taken around and shown the stock. I will show cherry and plum trees that were planted a year ago last fall that had specimen fruits last summer, likewise grapes and raspberries. All roses, climbing, H. P. and rose trees that I furnish are of the most hardy varieties. All roses I set out last spring bloomed very freely last season.

The Special Offer

Any first class, two year old fruit trees, berry bushes, grape vines, ornamental shade trees; or shrubbery at the following bargain prices:

Apples, at	35c each	Grape Vines	10c to 25c each

POORMASTER HELPED AN AGED ORFORD COUPLE

Named Johnson, Who Are Tenants on the Fairview Farm and 90 and 91 Years Old.

Poormaster Anna Anderson went to J. E. Egan's Fairview farm near Orfordville this morning to render a little assistance to an aged couple named Johnson, who are living in a small hut on the place and who are 90 and 91 years old. In the afternoon they support themselves by marketing the produce from a small garden plot, but the end of winter usually finds them without funds and in need of a little help. About $10 of groceries here in their over needy arrangements for providing them as needed were made with the nearest store.

The remains will be brought here at 11:45 Thursday and the burial service will be held immediately afterward.

PRETTY WEDDING IS TO OCCUR TONIGHT

Miss Myrtle May Osgood Will be United in Marriage to Roy B. Currier at Eight O'Clock.

This evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Osgood, 15 Wisconsin street, will occur the wedding of their daughter, Myrtle May, to Roy B. Currier, Rev. Richard M. Vaughan, former pastor of the Baptist church, of which both young people are members, will perform the ceremony. The event will take place in the living room of the home which has been prettily decorated with Easter lilies and ferns. The happy pair will be attended and only relatives and closest friends to the number of about forty will be present. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding supper will be served in the dining room, which has decorations of pink and white for the occasion. They intend to go on a honeymoon trip to Minneapolis, remaining there about a week, after which they will return and make their home at 513 Park Ave.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Observe May 31: As Memorial Day, May 30, comes on Sunday, Monday, May 31, will be the day observed this year for the decoration of the graves of the old soldiers and the public exercises. On Sunday the G. A. R. and Relief Corps will attend the services at the Methodist church in a body. The public services Monday afternoon will probably be held in the rink building.

Went to Rockford: Several Shriners from here were in Rockford today to attend the exercises which are being held there today and this week. The feature of today's program were the initiation ceremonies.

Jailed for Vagrancy: James Ryan, an insolent and rather insolent beggar who had been annoying a number of people with his demands for alms, pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy in municipal court this morning and was committed to the county jail for ten days. "Don't but, no don't say anything," said Ryan to Officer Peter Champion as he was being taken into court.

Escaped from Reformatory: Chief Applyby this morning received a telephone message from the authorities at the Watkies Industrial school to the effect that one of their charges named Bernard Garrigan, age 17 years, had escaped and asking that the local officers be on the lookout for him. He is dark-complexioned with blue eyes, dark curly hair, and the left ear somewhat larger than the right one. His wearing apparel included a blue cap, blue overalls and jacket.

SPRANG MARCH ON ALL THEIR FRIENDS

Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Leighton Were Registered at Grand Hotel Last Night and Left for Chicago Today.

Following the impressive and beautiful wedding ceremony which united Miss Vera Wilcox and Dr. Carleton Leighton at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Harris last evening, an elaborate buffet luncheon was served and the couple took their departure under a shower of rice and confetti. The automobile which carried them away was supposed to have been headed for Clinton or some other neighboring railroad station, but after it had traversed a circuitous route the passengers presently disembarked at the Grand hotel. The bride and groom departed for Chicago at half-past ten o'clock this morning and will leave Chicago for Clinton at 5:30 this afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Leighton, the parents of the groom, left for the east this morning and most of the other visiting guests have taken their departure. In addition to those mentioned in the account of the wedding published last evening, the following witnessed the ceremony: I. J. Dahlo of Milwaukee, Mrs. James Wilnegar of Clinton, and Mrs. W. W. King of Minneapolis.

PRETTY WEDDING WAS HELD THIS MORNING

Miss Mae Gaffrey United in Marriage to Thomas Heffron at St. Patrick's Church.

At seven o'clock this morning Miss Mae Gaffrey was united in marriage to Thomas Heffron, William Heffron acting as best man and Miss Nellie Delaney as maid of honor. The happy couple left on an early train for the south, where they will spend their honeymoon, returning to Janesville to make their home. Mr. Heffron has for many years been connected with the Ames Rohrbeg Company and last evening was guest of honor at a dinner given at the Myers hotel by Mr. Rohrbeg to the employees of his store. The bride is one of the youngest and most popular of the young society leaders of St. Patrick's church and the happy couple received many handsome gifts from their many friends.

SPECIAL PROGRAM IS VERY INTERESTING

This Evening There is to Be a Men's Reception at the Congregational Church.

At the men's reception to be held at the Congregational church this evening H. W. Root, the patriotic lecturer of the G. A. R., is to talk on the history of our flag. Mr. Root is the custodian of the G. A. R. collection at the state capitol and is not only an interesting speaker but has written many interesting articles on the war and war days that will find their places in history. This lecture this evening is to be illustrated by a series of flags showing the development of our nation's emblem and what it grew from to its present state of stars and stripes. The gathering this evening is under the auspices of the Men's Relief club of the church. All men are invited whether members of the club or not and after the talk, which begins at eight o'clock, light refreshments will be served.

SOCIETY ORGANIZED JUST A DECADE AGO

King's Daughters of Baptist Church Celebrate Anniversary of Organization with Banquet.

The tenth anniversary of the organization of the King's Daughters' society of the Baptist church was celebrated by a banquet held in the parlors of the church last evening. Members and their husbands, numbering in all eighty-eight, were in attendance at the affair, the husbands being the guests of honor. No pains had been spared in the preparation of the feast and the program which followed and the affair was a success from start to finish. The rooms in which the banquet was held were decorated with the colors of the society, purple and white, and the tables were arranged in the form of a cross, the insignia. The decorations of the tables were large bouquets of purple and white hyacinths. Several of the young ladies of the church assisted in the serving. A fine supper was enjoyed by all.

Following the repast a most excellent program, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, and songs by the Ladies' Symphony Quartet of New York. With Mrs. Thomas S. Nolan presiding the following numbers were given:

Vocal Duets—Misses Mild Bowerman and Ruth Humphrey.

Readings—Miss Ruth Humphrey, Ruth Bowerman, Misses Calla Swartz and Miss Wilma Baker.

Readings by Miss Amy Woodruff.

"Oldtime Songs—Ladies' Symphony Quartet.

The hit of the evening's entertainment was the singing of the Ladies' Symphony Quartet of New York, who were repeatedly encoored. Four of the ladies, Mrs. L. L. Leslie, Mrs. Louise Bowerman, Mrs. William Morris and Mrs. A. C. Campbell, attired themselves in old gowns and painted and powdered themselves so as to represent the ladies of 100 years ago and sang oldtime songs. Their imitations of the popular prima donnas and opera singers were so ludicrous that they "brought down the house."

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors of St. Cherry St. who so promptly came to our rescue and saved our home from destruction by fire Sunday afternoon.

THOS. P. PALMER.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to express our sincere thanks to our kind friends and neighbors who assisted us during the sickness and after the death of our beloved son, and also for the beautiful floral offerings.

CEREMONY WAS HELD AT THE BRIDE'S HOME

Miss Catherine Peters, United in Marriage to J. C. Van Anker of Beloit at Four Today.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Peters, fourth avenue, at four o'clock this afternoon, Miss Catherine Peters, their daughter, was united in marriage to J. C. Van Anker of Beloit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John McManey in the parlor of the home. The couple were unattended, taking their places while George Hatch played Schubert's "Wedding March." The bride wore a pretty gown of embroidered swiss. The room was very beautifully adorned with festoons of asparagus fern and white carnations, suspended from the sides to the center of the ceiling of the room. The arch and sides of the window where the ceremony was performed were decorated with southern amilax, palms and carnations, all very tastefully arranged.

After the ceremony a four-course luncheon was served to the party, the ladies of the O. E. S. furnishing the repast. The table decorations were Easter lilies and sweet alyssum.

The happy couple will go on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, returning via Canada to make their home in Beloit. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Van Anker of Beloit, and is employed as passenger agent there on the North-Western road.

They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome diamond brooch. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Henry Davis, Mrs. L. M. Davis, of Chicago; Miss Peters and Miss Olive Perkins, of Beloit; William Packard of Laul, and Miss Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Van Anker, the parents, the groom's brother, J. C. Van Anker, Master Ernest Neesh, of Beloit, and Mrs. Cowan of Michigan.

NO MAY JURY TERM IN CIRCUIT COURT

Judge Grimm Files Order to That Effect—Bridwell and Hiller May Not Be Tried Until October.

Clerk of Court Jesse Earle has received the following notice from Judge Grimm:

"It appearing to my satisfaction from the files and records of this court and information obtained from the members of the bar that it will be unnecessary to draw a jury for the May term for 1930, I do therefore hereby order and direct that no jury shall be drawn or summoned for the term commencing May 3, 1930. Dated April 14, 1930. GEORGE GRIMM, Circuit Judge.

The papers stipulating the change of venue from municipal to circuit court in the criminal actions against George Bridwell and William Hiller were filed today. The cases can be taken up during the adjourned February jury term which begins next Monday, only by consent of all the parties. Otherwise there can be no trial until October. District Attorney Fisher has not yet signified his willingness to try the cases at once. In the meantime both men are prisoners in the county jail. It is understood that Bridwell could secure the $1,200 bail bonds but that he is not going to do so for fear that he would be arraigned immediately on the new but for charge in case he should be released.

FINE LEGACY GIVEN TO TRINITY CHURCH

Parish Will Receive $1,800 Left by Mrs. Mary Leamy, a Former Communicant.

At a meeting of the vestrymen of Trinity Episcopal church held last evening, Harry E. Kinnison, executor of the estate of Mary E. Leamy, transferred to the parish as residuary legatee, the sum of eighteen hundred dollars in securities and cash. The donor of the legacy, Mrs. Leamy, who died a year ago last March, was one of the communicant members of the parish and had been for over forty years. She was well-known to many in this city, having kept a fruit stand on East Milwaukee street for many years. The sum given is to form an endowment fund, known as the "Mary Leamy Fund for Trinity Church," the income from which is to be used for the purposes of the parish.

ARE AFRAID OF SENATOR ELKINS

ALDRICH AND OTHER SENATE LEADERS EXPECT BIG TARIFF FIGHT.

ORGANIZATION THREATENED

West Virginia Man Objects to New England's Domination in Law-making—House Request for Return of Bill to Be Denied.

Washington, Apr. 14.—Fear that Senator Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia intends to lead a fight against the tariff bill has alarmed Senators Aldrich, Hale and Lodge, leaders of the organization in the upper branch of congress.

The West Virginia senator several days ago revolted against the domination of New England in the lawmaking of the United States as against the south and west, and he is assured of ample support should he continue to fight the combine, with which, in other legislation, he always has been identified. He continues to criticize the tariff bill and unless concessions he demands in favor of the south are granted it is believed the hardest fight the senate has had in years will result. That the combine will be split many are predicting.

Minority Wants More Time. Before the senate meets tomorrow there will be a session of the finance committee to determine whether the Senator S. B. Elkins.

Minority members will be ready to take up general debate on the tariff bill. From informal discussions of the bill between Republican and Democratic members the indications are that the minority will ask for an extension of time until Monday of next week. If they should do so their request would be granted by the Republican senate leaders.

The message from the house asking that the Payne bill be returned for a correction of the petroleum schedule will be received tomorrow. In view of the fact that the bill had been referred to the finance committee, amended and reported back to the senate, it is not likely that the bill will be permitted to go back to the house. Senate leaders take the position that there is no necessity for the return of the bill to the house, as the finance committee intends to offer amendments on the floor to the petroleum schedule which will entirely efface the error which crept into the bill at the time it was passed by the house.

Think It Waste of Time. That portion of the bill to which the words "and its products" are to be added by the clerk of the house have been stricken out by the senate committee, and it would be necessary for the senate to amend the correction desired by the house. It is therefore thought to be an unnecessary waste of time to return it.

In the house, the statement that the Aldrich amendments to the Payne bill tend to increase the duties on luxuries and reduce them on necessities is taken with a grain of salt. It is pointed out by Republican members of the ways and means committee that the necessities which are reduced are apples and cocon, which the ways and means committee made dutiable for revenue purposes. On the other hand, corn, wheat, barley, rye and other agricultural products, many of which are used on the breakfast table, have been greatly increased. While the increased duties on cheap gloves and hosiery have been taken off by the senate finance committee, the general opinion prevailing in the house is that the amendment to restore the Dingley rates is intended partly at least for use in conference.

Protests Against Wheat "Corner." Pittsburgh, Pa., Apr. 11.—George Sward, one of the largest Pittsburgh bakers, yesterday sent a telegram to Secretary of State P. C. Knox, appealing to the government to put an end to the wheat corner in Chicago and other stock speculation in food products.

BASEBALL BATTLE IS ON IN BOTH BIG LEAGUES

Real Opening of the Season This Afternoon in American and National.

Standing of the Clubs. Y. AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Clubs.	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Philadelphia	1	0	100
Washington	1	0	100
New York	1	0	100
Boston	1	0	100

Play ball! The voice of the umpire was heard in the cities of the National and American leagues this afternoon and the real opening of the season on the diamond took place. The games Monday and yesterday in the eastern cities of the American league only whetted the appetite of the fans for the real battle today.

In the National league Brooklyn opens this afternoon at New York, Philadelphia at Boston, Pittsburgh at Cincinnati and St. Louis at Chicago. The western division of the American league opens with Chicago at Detroit and Cleveland at St. Louis.

Yesterday's games resulted in runs, hits and errors as follows: At Philadelphia—Boston, 4, 8, 2; Philadelphia, 2, 9, 5. At Washington—New York, 5, 7, 3; Washington, 0, 6, 4.

WOMAN FOILS SALOON MEN.

She Keeps Rum Shops Out of a Missouri Village.

Kennett City, Mo., Apr. 14.—Mrs. C. H. McCrackin has defeated 15 attempts in the last two years to place a saloon in the village of Dodson, 20 miles south of Kansas City.

Her latest victory was achieved yesterday when the county court, acting on evidence obtained by her, again refused to issue a license, when the latest applicant recently filed a petition with the court.

Mrs. McCrackin mounted her horse and rode through the township procuring signatures to a remonstrance. She gathered the information that many names on the application were forgeries.

"As long as I live and am able to travel," smiled Mrs. McCrackin, "there will never be a saloon in Dodson."

PRISON FOR CUPID BROKER.

Marion Grey Must Serve Sentence of Judge Landis.

Chicago, Apr. 14.—Marion Grey of the Searchlight club of Elgin, Ill., must serve one year in a prison cell for her work in mating souls of rich but long-suffering men and handsome but loveless widows.

Judge Landis' sentence in the case was yesterday affirmed by the United States circuit court of appeals. No error was found in the records and the attorney for the girl matrimonial agent, Elijah N. Zolner, who took her case after a reported squabble between Miss Grey and her trial counsel, was informed in the decision that "if any error was committed it was invited error."

SENATOR'S WIFE TO SCRUB.

Mrs. La Follette Offers Services to Clean Capital Streets.

Washington, Apr. 14.—The women of Washington, who announced that if the streets were not cleaned by April 15 they would clean them, have decided that the commissioners are not doing anything in that line and have completed their preparations to scrub up.

Mrs. Robert M. La Follette and others in the official circles have written to Mrs. F. V. Colville, chairman of the committee, promising co-operation.

Mrs. Colville has sent invitations to women of the closer suburbs of the capital to join the movement and the response is enthusiastic.

CASTRO'S WIFE IS BARRED.

Will Not Be Permitted to Land at Venezuelan Port.

Willemstad, Curacao, Apr. 14.—Senora Castro, wife of the former president of Venezuela, has been refused admittance into Venezuela, according to information brought here yesterday by the steamer Zulia. She will continue on board the steamer Guadalupe to Colon.

The American gunboat Paducah is still at La Guayra.

Dickenson Going to Panama.

Washington, Apr. 14.—Secretary Dickenson, accompanied by Mrs. Dickenson and Maj. Gen. Franklin Bell, chief of staff, will leave here next Sunday evening for Charleston, S. C., where they will embark on Tuesday afternoon on the Mayflower for a cruise to Colon to personally inspect the Panama canal.

Illinoisan Dies in Gotham.

New York, Apr. 14.—L. J. Resser, president of the Ingersoll Canning Company of Chicago, Ill., was taken ill on the street while on his way to a wholesale grocery in this city yesterday and died in the Hudson Street hospital shortly after he had been taken there. Heart disease was the cause.

Cleveland Banker Is Convicted.

Cleveland, O., Apr. 14.—Eliza Bartholomew of Toledo, a promoter of banks and railroads, was found guilty in the United States circuit court yesterday of using the mails to defraud. Upon failure to furnish a bond of $3,000 he was taken to the county jail.

ALLEGED DYNAMITE PLOT IS FOILED BY POLICEMAN

Believes Danville (Ill.) Man Intended to Blow Up Grandparents and Ex-Officer.

Danville, Ill., Apr. 14.—The police yesterday foiled David Reynolds, aged 22, in what they believe was an attempt to blow himself, Mr. and Mrs. Apheus Darling and former Policeman Jesse Shaffer into atoms with 20 pounds of dynamite.

Reynolds went to his grandparents' home in a quarrelsome mood. He at once proceeded to connect a number of sticks of dynamite with the electric wire of a battery. Becoming alarmed the grandmother inquired what he was doing and he is said to have replied: "What you don't know won't hurt you."

Reynolds then demanded that the woman go to a barber shop nearby and ask former Policeman Shaffer to come to his home as he wanted to see him. Shaffer refused to go because he feared that Reynolds wished to pay back an old grudge.

When the grandmother returned the young man had made a circuit of dynamite and the battery and is said to have remarked to the woman, "One word and I will blow you to pieces." The woman called Officer Colt.

When he saw the policeman coming Reynolds picked up the dynamite and endeavored to escape. He was captured but again escaped on his way to the city police station in a patrol wagon. He was later recaptured and is being held in the city prison pending hearing today.

HEN IS STILL SUPREME.

Works Better Than Incubators Says a Government Report.

Washington, Apr. 14.—Uncle Sam has vindicated the hen. In a bulletin just issued by the department of agriculture, as a result of a careful investigation of the problem of "hens versus incubators," the hen comes off with flying colors. Not only does the hen hatch more eggs out of a given setting, but the resulting chicks are worth more.

Among the details and figures which the department issued as a result of the experiment station test are the following:

"From 879 eggs set, incubators hatched 533 chicks, or 60.6 per cent. "From 279 eggs set, hens hatched 210 chicks, or 75.3 per cent. "Chicks hatched under hens weighed heavier than chicks hatched in incubators.

Tuberculosis Among Children.

Des Moines, Ia., Apr. 14.—An investigation conducted by the Des Moines Tuberculosis association has resulted in the discovery that six out of every ten children examined are infected with tuberculosis. The majority of the cases are latent, but in many the disease has progressed far. The association is considering establishing a children's tubercular camp this summer.

DEMOCRATS HONOR JEFFERSON.

Indiana and Ohio Governors Speak at New York Banquet.

New York, Apr. 14.—Denunciation of the principle of protection and of the tariff legislation now pending in congress as a pretense and a sham formed the keynote of the addresses at the annual dinner of the National Democratic club last night at the Hotel Savoy in celebration of the one hundred and sixty-sixth anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson. Among the speakers were Judson Harmon, governor of Ohio; Thomas H. Marshall, governor of Indiana, and George E. Chamberlain, United States senator from Oregon.

Wisconsin Man Tries Suicide.

Lincoln, Neb., Apr. 14.—William Donn, a college man of Evan Childs, Wis., is in the hospital here in a dangerous condition from a self-inflicted wound. He tried to commit suicide by taking poison and was taken to the hospital. There he managed to secure a knife and stabbed himself in the breast. He has been unable to get employment.

California Bank Is Closed.

Oakland, Cal., Apr. 14.—The Union National bank in this city closed its doors yesterday. Special Bank Examiner Roerback has taken charge of the institution and will wind up its affairs. There is due to depositors the sum of $338,000, which the bank officials are confident will be paid in full.

Arrested for Alleged Swindle.

ALFRED BLANCHARD, WHO DISAPPEARED FROM HOME SEVEN MONTHS AGO. MOTHER NEARLY PROSTRATED.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—For over seven months now the mother of Alfred Blanchard has not seen nor heard of him. What this means can scarcely be appreciated. The mother of Harold Moon and Willie Whitt, known as do few others, but only those who have experienced the anguish of a broken heart can guess its meaning. Little Alfred Blanchard is only 15 years old. He is a very bright boy, head strong, and full of self-confidence. Up to last September he lived with his mother at 457 East Leonard street. Since then Mrs. Blanchard has heard nothing from him, though there have been some reports that he has been located at different points over the country. The last one came from Muskegon, Mich., yesterday. Mrs. Blanchard received a letter from Chief of Police Dowd of Muskegon, to whom she had written for assistance, stating that a lad captured and now in jail there accurately answers the description of young Blanchard. The lad was supposed to be a runner for a gang of tramps who had established a camp near Muskegon and were living on money earned by the boy. The gang was broken up by the police, and the boy and his comrades, having been released, moved north.

Mrs. Blanchard, however, cannot think that the lad could have been Alfred, as he was not the kind of a boy to associate with thieves. She sent a photograph of the boy to Muskegon to discover definitely whether the suspected youth was her son.

The mother, who is a nurse and supports a family of six children, had some difficulty in controlling him. The boy's father, who was an editor old newspaper, died three years ago, and following that incident the boy's help was required toward the family support, and he was taken from school and put to work. With the acquirement of weekly wage came a too assertive independence. Judge Jewell was communicated with, and through his advice Alfred was placed in the mission of Our Lady of Mercy in Chicago.

There Alfred was progressing finely when he disappeared. He was a naturally bright youth, with a penchant for learning. But the walls of the boys' school were too monotonous for a lad of his temperament, and he took an abrupt notion to see more of real life. So, without communicating his intentions to anyone, he slipped silently from the institution, and at the same time temporarily from his mother's life. At the time Mrs. Blan-

Don't Buy Your Building Material Until You Have Learned of the Merits of the Standard Concrete

Hollow Building Blocks

The Standard concrete building block will make you a permanent building, and is a block that lends itself beautifully to architectural designing.

We make spheres, porch spindles and columns so that the architect has some chance to turn out for you a beautiful building.

The face of the Standard Block is made of 3 parts, fine sand, one part cement and 2% waterproofing compound. This gives the block a fine finished appearance and prevents it from turning white.

The body of the block is made of four parts graded gravel, graded to one inch in size, three parts coarse sand and one part cement. These are the specifications adopted by the National Association of Block Manufacturers, and are acknowledged to be the best in the world.

A building made of Standard Blocks will be beautiful in appearance, will not require painting, or repairs and in the end affords most satisfaction to the owner.

The Standard Blocks are the cheapest per running foot, as the cost is but 1¢ per inch. Send for more information.

JOHNSON GENIUS
FOR ORGANIZING
INSURANCE COMPANIES—ANOTH-ER ARTICLE BY J. T. WRIGHT.

JANESVILLE BIRTHPLACE

Of Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, Founder of Which Was So-called General John C. Johnson.

Turning back the pages of history to fifty years ago, and telling in an interesting manner of the men and events of that time, Josiah T. Wright has prepared an article on General John C. Johnson, the founder of two insurance companies, who once owned a farm near Janesville. The historical sketch also tells of the formation of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, which was effected in this city and with which many men prominent in Janesville at that time were connected, as it was organized entirely by local men. Mr. Wright's article follows:

General John C. Johnson came from the city of New York in the summer of 1854. The writer became acquainted with him after our friendship continued until he left the country.

How the general obtained his title I never knew. This much I learned: he was a great manager, never born to do business in a plain coat, or to bore a large hole with a small auger. While living in New York he studied up life insurance, made tables of the expectancy of life and all that pertained to insurance, and finally succeeded in establishing the great Northwestern Life Insurance company of New York city without doubt considered the greatest, most reliable of any in this country or any other. The general was offered by his confederates $40,000 for his interest in the concern, which was accepted and he immediately decided to go west and buy virgin soil and open up a farm.

When first the writer heard of him he had purchased 5,000 acres within six miles of Janesville—the land three miles west of the Rock River house, which is same distance north, really only four miles from the city, as a bird would fly, northwesterly. The first thing our friend undertook was to build the great house and break the land. Six horses and two mules, and eleven yoke of oxen were plowing during breaking season; in the two summers 800 acres were in crops, which produced 5,000 bushels of wheat, 10,000 bushels of corn, 1,500 bushels of oats, and 500 bushels of potatoes, to accomplish which he employed from fifteen to thirty men. Barns and sheds were built to house 250 head of cattle and 350 tons of hay.

This was accomplished in the short space of two years. Had I ever expected to write this sketch I would have asked the general a great many questions about his early life and other things that now I want to know. Although he was not given to talk for the sake of talking he was very genial. He spent a great amount for machinery of almost every kind. The general was the first to put pay the expenses and improvements and he was obliged to borrow money, which seriously abated his enthusiasm. Had he continued two years more the rise in the value of the land would have made him rich. The same property today is worth $300,000. How many have the same experience, going at a thing with a rush, and when obstacles appear give up in despair! One day the general called upon the writer, and in a confidential way told him of his intention of starting a life insurance company in Janesville and invited upon my being the assistant organizer, which would result in having a first position when established. At first I thought I would accept, having full confidence in the general ability in his first attempt in New York, but after mature thought declined. He finally succeeded in getting the late Matthew H. Carpenter to accept, who with the general set things in motion.

A public meeting was called, company organized and elected following persons as incorporators: Thomas Lappin, M. C. Smith, David Noggle, Edward McKoy, Solomon Hutson, Jas. H. Knowlton, John P. Dixon, Joseph A. Sleeper, Edward L. Dimock, B. P. Piskey, Josiah P. Willard, John B. Hirsch, Lake Stoughton, James Blair, Peter Myers and Loren F. Fisher. The name adopted was "The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. of the State of Wisconsin." Of course the understanding was that Janesville would be its home, but "the best laid schemes of mice and men gang aft agley."

Milwaukee offered inducements, not met at home, which resulted in taking the plum. Two of our prominent citizens became interested in it: Hon. John J. R. Pease, for many years a director, spending much time at headquarters; Willard Merrill, Esq., was, for the rest of his life, at the head of one of the departments. It is needless to say it was, and is to this day, a great success. It is safe to say that had it not been for General Johnson, the great Northwestern Life Ins. Co. would never have been born.

The general was rather tall, dark complexion, a strong face and no ordinary character. He died in the city of Madison leaving one son, William, who also died, he leaving one son, now residing in Kansas, and a daughter, now Mrs. Frank Wood, living at 526 West Bluff street of this city.

In some departments of manufacturing, machinery has completely superseded the old style of work by hand. Until within a few years when a pair of shoes or boots were wanted one would go to a boot and shoemaker, who would take the measure and make from such leather as desired, kid and light oak, French or homelock lamagne, light or heavy. Most men and boys had boots with legs and straps which have gone almost entirely out of date. The late Judge John H. Bennett continued having his boots made by hand for imperfectly formed feet. Some still have them made from measure by some oldtime makers. Soon these old artisans will be gone, and who will make the shoes? The writer does not know of a boy learning the trade in the city and doubts if it is the state. The old-fashioned shoemaker worked hard and was very good to make promiss when to be called for. I think they were kept for men, but the luckless boy often had to wait and wait several weeks before he could go dry-shod. Some of those lads had their doubts if a shoemaker would ever get to heaven. The repairing was a terror. Boys were limited to one pair of boots or shoes and it stood him in hand to keep them in repair. Not having a change, he would wait to have them tanned. Instead of the elch skin now used, the artist would take his knife and split pegs from a narrow strip of wood he had planed and saved the right length. Afterwards wooden pegs were made of maple and shipped by the box—but that day has passed. So in shoemaking, so in harnessmaking, a good machine would make two sets of harness per week. Now, with machinery fifteen to twenty sets per week are made. The harness-maker Co. employ sixty hands. So one can see the quantity manufactured by them. There is a like establishment in our neighboring city of Rockford, Ill.; the only difference, they save the tanners' profit by tanning their leather and afterward make into harness, employing three hundred workmen.

Improved machinery enables a farmer to ride and plow, sow, cultivate, reap and stow in barns. By it we run our elevators and pears and cash baskets in the city.

The blacksmith of former times, to shoe a horse or ox, would from a bar of iron turn into shape by heating and hammering; also with a small from make the nails. Now he can get his shoes and nails all sized ready made for less price than when at the labor of forging.

SICK DOCTOR
Proper Food Put Him Right.

The food experience of a physician in his own case when worn and weak from sickness and when needing nourishment the worst way is valuable:

"An attack of grip, so severe it came near making an end of me, left my stomach in such condition I could not retain any ordinary food. I know of course that I must have food nourishment or I could never recover."

"I began to take four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts and cream three times a day and for 2 weeks this was almost my only food; it tasted so delicious that I enjoyed it immensely and my stomach handled it perfectly from the first mouthful. It was so nourishing I was quickly built back to normal health and strength."

"Grape-Nuts is of great value as food to sustain life during serious attacks in which the stomach is so deranged it cannot digest and assimilate other foods."

"I am convinced that were Grape-Nuts more widely used by physicians, it would save many lives that are otherwise lost from lack of nourishment."

Absolutely the most perfect food in the world. Trial of Grape-Nuts 10 days proves "There's a Reason."

BIG STICK FOR UNJUST RATES

JANESVILLE TO FIGHT EXCESSIVE FREIGHT RATES.

ENLIST LOCAL SHIPPERS

Western Freight Adjustment Association to Save Thousands of Dollars for Janesville Shippers.

That Janesville shippers, both retailers and manufacturers, are annually losing thousands of dollars through overcharge and unjust freight rates on the part of the railroads, and that this money, which in former years has been wasted, can be saved if the local shippers will adopt proper protective measures, is the contention of the Western Freight Adjustment association, whose secretary, E. A. Larish, and special agent, A. D. Larish, are in Janesville for the purpose of inducing Janesville shippers to become members of the association. The organization is unanimously endorsed by commercial clubs throughout that section of the state to which the association confines its operations, and was brought to this city by the Janesville Commercial club, with whom they have signed a contract.

The purpose of the association which was organized about four years ago and whose headquarters are at Oakbrook, is to educate the shippers of the territory in which it works in matters pertaining to freight charges, to form a sort of offensive and defensive alliance with the shippers of the town as a whole in order to secure just and equitable freight rates for the city, and to take charge of individual claims of the shippers for the purpose of securing redress from the railroads. The territory covered extends from Menomonee on the north, to Beloit on the south, and from Grand Rapids to Watonsau on the west to Lake Michigan, or as it is known in railroad parlance, the Fox River group.

The reason for thus limiting the ground to be covered lies in the fact that conditions are practically the same throughout its entire area, and to take cities outside of these limits would double both the work and the intricacy of the computations. Almost every manufacturer of the cities embraced within these boundaries is a member of the association, Janesville being the last city to be canvassed in the interests of the organization. Beloit, where Mr. Larish has just finished work, has eighty members.

The principle upon which the organization works and to which it owes its success might be called a modified version of the "Big Stick." By uniting the support of every shipper in a certain section of the country where conditions are similar, the association, after securing reliable evidence of unjust rates through its own experts, can present this evidence in a usable form and present it to the general freight department of the road where it is generally rounded. If not, the case is presented before the railroad rate commission and the road compelled to grant an equitable rate. That readjustment can and has been done, is shown by documents in the possession of Mr. Larish.

As an example, the following case might be given: In cases recently decided, where the association acted as plaintiff in behalf of a number of Wisconsin cities, the railroads have been compelled to grant lower rates. What is known as the Winona rate has been paid by some cities of this state, while the rate secured and now paid is a combination of local rates. Shippers of these cities were formerly compelled to pay the through Winona rate on goods shipped from Cincinnati, this rate being charged to all points north of Chicago.

Cincinnati, Winona, and Chicago are known as 100 per cent points. Under the new rate, however, the shipper pays charges found in a rate including the through rate from the point of origin to the 100 per cent point nearest to the destination, plus the proportional rate from the nearest 100 per cent point to the destination. The proportional is the best local rate from the nearest 100 per cent point (Milwaukee).

In this way, an Appleton shipper, instead of paying the through rate from Cincinnati to Winona, as he did before, now pays the through rate from Cincinnati to Milwaukee, as he prefers, in the routing which the association, as its traffic manager, submits to the consignee, plus the local rate from Milwaukee to Appleton. It might be mentioned in this connection, that the association, for the consideration of the regular membership fee, will take charge of the member's traffic, and by means of its expert traffic managers, choose the cheapest route from the point of shipment to the factory of the member. As is well known to anyone who has endeavored to decipher a railroad traffic schedule, this choice of the cheapest route is a complicated affair and confusion without any practical results to anyone but an expert.

What this association proposes to do for Janesville shippers is, to present an appeal to the carriers, and if necessary, the interstate commerce commission, asking that the recent order governing freight rates at Fond du Lac, Appleton, Oshkosh, Neenah and other Wisconsin cities, where the association has worked, be extended so that it will also apply to Janesville, and that a combination of local freight rates may take the place of the Winona rate now in operation, and which gives the Eastern shippers much more than rightly belongs to them. Should the purpose of the association be accomplished, and there seems to be no reason why it should not be as it has been secured for other Wisconsin cities, it will mean a saving of twelve cents per hundred pounds on all first-class shipments from Cincinnati. The Winona rate from Cincinnati to Janesville on first-class freight is 86 cents, while the rate that can be secured, which is the through rate from Chicago to Janesville, amounts to only 74 cents. The Cincinnati rate is merely illustrative of over-charges which Janesville dealers are paying in on goods shipped from the east on the so-called trunk lines. Many shippers are receiving goods from eastern cities via the Chicago route, which is $1.11 23 per hundred pounds, first-class, while the Milwaukee rate is 93 cents per hundred pounds, first-class, a saving of 18 23 cents per hundred pounds over the Milwaukee route. Many shippers are getting their goods via Chicago where they could save money did they but know what route to take and order their goods sent accordingly. It is through expert advice such as this that the Western Freight Adjustment Association will save thousands for its members.

The above figures will indicate in a small way what the association will do for its members. For the members of the association it acts as a traffic manager, routes all shipments, specifies the rate which according to their rate books should be charged, and assumes all risks in regard to over and under-charges. The endeavor of the association, however, be to secure through the interstate commerce commission, the proper adjustment of rates, by means of which the greatest saving for the shipper is made.

It might be supposed that, with the avowed purpose of the organization to secure lower freight rates, the railroads would regard it as an enemy and fight it continually. This, however, is not the case. To put the situation as a simple proposition, it is to the interest of the railroad to do all in its power to increase the production of the factories and in this way to increase their freight traffic. It is evident that excessive charges will not do this but rather tends to curtail production.

An equitable rate, both to the manufacturer and the road, will increase traffic without taking away the freight profits, and in this way benefit both parties. It is a fact that can be substantiated by letters in the possession of the secretary, that both the Northwestern and the St. Paul are not fighting the organization, but on the contrary, are aiding it whenever possible in its fight against the eastern belt lines.

The advantages afforded the individual shipper in cases where the freight rate on certain of his raw materials is excessive, cannot be overestimated. If the shipper wishes to complain, he is unable to present his claim in a fashion that will give the general freight agent a clear idea of what he wants, and that official, who is compelled to look over thousands of complaints, cannot spend his time personally investigating each confused claim, and turns over the matter to some clerk who thinks that his duty lies in putting off the complainant until he becomes discouraged and gives up the fight in disgust, blaming the road for the unjust rates, whereas, had his request been presented in the proper manner and in a way that could be easily understood, if his claim had been just, the road would have remedied the error.

In matters of this character, the Western Freight Adjustment Association, whose officers are all experienced railroad men, will take up the complaint, investigate it, and if there is a sound reason for the protest, present it in a manner that will secure instant recognition. If then, the road refuses to grant any just request, the association with its many members can make a vastly more effective fight than any one shipper could ever hope to do.

Forty Years Ago

Janesville Daily Gazette, April 14, 1869.—The bridge meeting.—The Court Room was filled last evening by those who assembled to hear a discussion of the bridge question. Several gentlemen addressed the meeting when a resolution introduced by Mr. Sloan instructing the common council to contract for the construction of an iron bridge, not less than forty-two feet in width, at a cost not to exceed $22,000, was passed with few dissenting voices. There was other great unanimity in the meeting in favor of the iron structure or else those who took a different view remained quiet.

Pushing It Forward.—Workmen engaged on the new wing of the Institute for the blind are crowding the building forward vigorously, exhibit the superstructure will exhibit a marked growth. The contractor for the job, Mr. Busch, of Milwaukee, has purchased the stone to be used, at Joliet, Ill., where it has been dressed and is now ready for shipment. It is our hope that it will commence arriving here next week.

A Protest.—A paper is in circulation protesting against an iron bridge. We understand it has been quite numerous.

LATE SOCIAL NEWS FROM CUT-OFF CITY

Pleasant Surprise Carried Out on Father Fitzgerald by His Congregation.—Military Band Entertainment.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Evansville, April 12.—The members of St. Paul's congregation gave the Rev. Father Fitzgerald a very pleasant surprise at his home on First street. The event was given in honor of his birthday anniversary and as a symbol of the high esteem in which he is held by his parishioners they presented him with a beautiful library table and lamp. D. P. Finnane made the presentation speech and the ladies served delicious refreshments.

Never before has Evansville more clearly demonstrated its appreciation of their band than last evening, for notwithstanding the weather was most disagreeable, a good crowd braved the storm to listen to the entertainment given in the opera house by the military band. The concert in its entirety was very fine and highly creditable to both Director Johnson and the players. The initial playing of the "Wisconsin Battle Hymn," composed by Director J. A. Johnson, was a masterly effort and the audience seemed much pleased with the composition and showed their keen appreciation by repeated applause. The hall which followed was a success and both the dancing and excellent music furnished by Leaver's orchestra was thoroughly enjoyed.

All of the churches will unite in a meeting at the Congregational church next Sunday evening. The service will be under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A. and Dr. Prehman of the evening will take for his subject, "Man at His Best." Dr. Prehman will also preside at a men's meeting to be held in the Free Baptist church at three o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Will Ahara has been confined to her home by illness for several days.

Mrs. Harold Snyder of Chicago has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fulton.

Mrs. J. P. Porter is visiting in Janesville today.

On Sunday, April 11, a little son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Vertzell.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon, April 10, with Mrs. Mattie Wadsworth. Mrs. Gullford Phillips will be the leader. Their sister member, Mrs. W. W. Gillow, who has been ill for some time, was lovingly remembered on Easter by each one.

WEST CENTER.—The worst windstorm of the season came Easter Sunday. It did no damage, but everyone was glad to stay indoors.

The ladies of the Methodist church had a large attendance at their supper last Wednesday evening. A beautiful supper was served and a good program given.

Joseph Stapleton is seriously ill with blood poison. A trained nurse is in attendance, but no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denton and family were visitors at William Ade's, Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Fuller is sick with an attack of grippe and bronchitis. Dr. Lacy of Footville is in attendance.

Miss Sarah Ade entertained friends from Janesville last Friday and Saturday.

Miss Luella Hawk is home from Milwaukee Normal for the spring vacation.

Mrs. Will Dixon was a caller at the home of Edson Brown Friday afternoon.

The Easter program given by the members of the Methodist church was most impressive and beautifully rendered. A good sized audience filled the church and much credit given the young people for their efficient work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller of Evansville spent Easter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Brown.

Will Howell is having some carpenter work done on his house.

I HAVE A CURE FOR CANCER

During the past three weeks I have cured four cases of cancer. The patients all reside in Janesville and the immediate vicinity. You may obtain their names by writing or calling at my office. This cure is not an experimental stage. I have been curing cancer for nineteen years and in all that time I have not had a single case recur. I can furnish you with the very best of references as to my personal character and financial stability and will absolutely guarantee to refund every cent paid me in case of a recurrence. Before deciding upon treatment I should like to have you call at my office and talk it over. Consultation and examination are free. The following letter from a man whom I cured of cancer tells what he thinks of my services:

Dr. G. H. Webster, Janesville, Wis.
Dear Doctor:—I take this way of thanking you for the wonderful cure of the cancer on my lip and face, without losing one drop of blood or much inconvenience of sleeping or eating. Will say that my lip and face are all healed and the beard has grown out, and there is only a small scar. And would say to others who are suffering from cancer, that they can find a cure by going to you if such a thing can be had. I consider money is nothing compared to life. Also, if anyone suffers with cancer will write to me and see me I will only be too glad to write or tell them how easy it is to be cured. I am sincerely your friend, T. D. HASSETT.
R. F. D. No. 12, Milton Jet, Wis.

The above letter is one of many testimonials and endorsements, which I have on file and is proof positive that I do cure cancer.
